

The Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond cordially invites you to our

Construction Industry Information Session

Tuesday, May 21, 2013

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Baltimore Branch
502 S. Sharp Street, Baltimore, MD

Event highlights include:

- Overview of potential data center construction project*
- Networking opportunities with Richmond Fed construction project managers and procurement staff, general contractors, specialty trade contractors, and related industry suppliers
- An overview of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, including our construction procurement and supplier diversity practices
- Tips on positioning your company to compete successfully for Bank business

*Opportunities presented will focus primarily on General Contractors (Tier 3 data center construction experience required) and the following Specialty Trades: Carpentry, Computer Room Raised Flooring, Concrete, Data Cabling and Fiber, Drywall, Electrical, Fire Alarm/Sprinkler, Framing, Glass/Glazing/Curtainwall, Masonry, Mechanical/HVAC/Plumbing, Painting & Wallcoverings, Roofing, Site Preparation, Structural Steel, Water/Sewer/Power and Communication

---

Space is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis for up to two members of each organization.

---

Click here for event details and to register.
There is no cost to attend.

Please register by Tuesday, May 14, 2013.

---

Contact rich.supplier.diversity@rich.frb.org, if you have questions about this event.

presented in cooperation with

Baltimore Mayor's Office of Minority and Women-owned Business Development MD/DC Minority Supplier Development Council

Richmond • Baltimore • Charlotte