

Mahesh Sabnani
Equal Business Opportunity
Coordinator
Howard County Government

Mahesh Sabnani serves as the Equal Business Opportunity Program Coordinator for Howard County Government in its Office of Purchasing. In this capacity, he works towards the County's mission to foster a strong economic environment through an inclusive program that ensures all businesses an equal opportunity in County procurement activities

Before joining Howard County, he worked as a Contract Compliance Specialist for the Minority Business Program within the Department of Economic Development for the City of Hampton, Virginia. Prior to which, he was employed by the City of Albany - Dougherty County Consortium in Georgia in their Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization (OSDBU) as a Program Analyst and Assistant to the Director.

With more than 10 years of responsible experience in planning, implementing and coordinating Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) Programs, he has considerable knowledge of federal, state and local policies and procedures relating to supplier diversity programs. Sabnani loves to stay on the leading edge of diversity efforts by researching industry trends and best practices across the country.

Sabnani earned a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Wales, UK.
