

JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

HENRIETTA LACKS BUILDING

SUBCONTRACTOR OUTREACH EVENT
THURSDAY, MAY 2ND
8:00 AM - 12:00 PM

The Johns Hopkins Henrietta Lacks Building, located at the intersection of Ashland and Rutland Avenues, adjacent to Deering Hall, is designed as a 33K GSF, 4-story building housing the Berman Institute of Bioethics as well as CHE and ICTR within the School of Medicine.

KEY PACKAGES: Demolition • Structural Steel • Drywall • D/F/H • Flooring • Millwork • Specialties • Fire Protection • Sitework

LOCATION: The Johns Hopkins University at Keswick Campus
3910 Keswick, South Building, Baltimore, 21211

RSVP: Visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/jhu-henrietta-lacks-subcontractor-outreach-tickets-886357758917?aff=oddtcreator> or Scan the QR Code at the bottom of the page.

PARKING & TRANSPORTATION: Attendees will need to provide Photo ID to enter the building. Park in the garage across from the South Building entrance (garage is located at Keswick Road and Craycombe Avenue). From the garage, proceed across parking lot in to the South Entry and the lobby of the Johns Hopkins at Keswick Building.

QUESTIONS: Direct phone inquiries to 410-715-7240

