

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

A JOURNEY INTO COURAGE, STRATEGY AND LEGACY

Date: Friday, November 14th

Departure: Annapolis, MD 8:00 AM - 6:00 PM

Investment: $199 per person / group rates available

TRAVEL IN COMFORT. LEARN IN PURPOSE.

- Join acclaimed international speaker-singer Linda Harris and leadership strategist Rod Bourn for a full day tour tracing the path of the Underground Railroad
- Ride in a lux coach bus through the key sites like Cambridge, the Brodess plantation, and the pivotal Bucktown village store
- Engage in facilitated discussions on how historical leadership translates into modern organizational success
- Network with fellow leaders and change makers in a dynamic, reflective setting
- Enjoy lunchtime on your own and explore downtown Cambridge

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- C-Suite executives and senior leaders
- Entrepreneurs and business owners
- Leadership teams seeking inspiration and cohesion
- Anyone interested in learning more about the resolve of Harriet Tubman and those who supported freedom and equality during difficult times

WHY IT MATTERS

Leadership isn't learned in the classroom; it's forged in moments of tension, vision, and determination.

Reserve your seat now!
Scan the QR code for tickets.
Contact us at
rbourn@downsetlead.com /
(443) 286-9109

