

Most Inclusive Mayor for Minority Business

Please join us in saluting Catherine E. Pugh, Mayor of Baltimore City. Mayor Pugh is a longtime friend to minority business from her time spent as a Maryland State Senator introducing and supporting numerous legislation on the state level that opened millions of dollars in opportunities never before achieved! Upon becoming Mayor, her support for inclusion is evident weekly at the Board of Estimates by ensuring that all procurements have the city's overall MBE/WBE spending goals of 37% or close to it. Her cabinet is very diverse and the city is being well managed under her promised new leadership. Come learn about what's new going on in Baltimore City.
