Taylor Pharmacy & Wellness Center

Taylor Pharmacy and Wellness Center offers medications, pharmacy compounding services, medication disposal, and durable medical equipment and supplies. Owner Rick Taylor had been in the pharmaceutical industry for 17 years when he decided he wanted to start his own business. With the help of our team, he decided that an SBA 7(a) Start-Up Loan would work best for his business.

"This was my very first SBA loan, and I have to say that the FNB Small Business Finance team was very helpful in walking me through the process."

Moon Tool & Die

Moon Tool & Die is located in Meadville, Pennsylvania - also known as "Tool City," a nickname bestowed on this town because there are more tool & die businesses per square mile than any other city in America. After working in a number of manufacturing business leadership positions, Matt Jeglinski decided to jump into business ownership. After considering several financing options within FNB, he chose an SBA loan.

"I feel that FNB has given me a chance for the opportunity to live my dream, grow this business and bring great things to our home community here in northwestern Pennsylvania."
