How do I know if I should attend this event?

The Minority Outreach Fair is intended to assist your company in identifying work and/or contractual opportunities with top prime companies and government agencies. At MWMCA, we have intentionally identified prime companies to participate as exhibitors that hire and/or contract with other companies to fulfil their current and future needs.

What type of companies can exhibit at this event?

The exhibitors at this event are large prime companies and government agencies that are procuring goods/services from small businesses or can provide resources to small businesses; small businesses are not eligible to participate as exhibitors currently.

What can I expect to learn at this event?

Expect to get some of your questions about doing business with over 75 participating exhibitors answered. Expect to discover if your product or service is of value to the government agency and/or prime company. Expect to find out who the appropriate contacts are based on your company's capabilities.

How do I find out what exhibitors are participating in this event?

Over 75 participating exhibitors will consist of leading prime construction companies, utilities, educational institutions, government agencies and healthcare facilities. The exhibitor list is available here.

How do I know if any of the exhibitors need my company's services/products?

If participating exhibitors have provided a list of current and/or future service/product/construction project needs, it is linked to their company name on the exhibitor list. Select here to view the exhibitors list.

I reviewed the exhibitors list and none of the exhibitors indicate that they need my company's services/products, should I still attend?

As a business representative, you know what kind of prime companies and/or government agencies would utilize the type of services/products your company offers. If you attend, you can speak with prime company/agency reps to find out if they utilize your company's services/products and who the appropriate contact person would be to follow up with to discuss.

I've selected the exhibitor's name on the exhibitor's list but there is no services/products list attached, what should I do?

If an exhibitor has not provided us with service/product/construction project needs, you can still attend to meet the company/agency representative and discover the information during the event.

I reviewed the exhibitor list and am already doing business with some of the prime listed companies or have met them in the past, should I still attend?

As a company representative who is looking to increase sales, it is always a good idea to get out and meet and/or follow-up with the prime company representative you've previously met because the more you are in front of a prime company representative, they will get to know you and remember what your company does.

What time do I need to arrive at the event?

The event hours are from 8:00am – 12:00pm. You may arrive any time between these hours, however we recommend you arrive earlier versus later to have adequate time to visit the participating exhibitors.
