

St. Mary's College of Maryland is seeking bids for its project entitled Queen Anne Hall HVAC Replacement Project. The project calls for a contractor to furnish all necessary labor, supplies, equipment and materials for the replacement of Ventilation and Domestic Hot Water systems and installation of new Variable Flow Refrigeration (VFR) Air Conditioning/Heat Pump systems in Queen Anne Hall on the campus of St. Mary's College of Maryland located in St. Mary's City, MD.

The estimated value of the contract is $1.2 million dollars. The College has set a MBE goal of 10%

Solicitation may be found on emarylandmarketplace.com Document No. MDR1431023710

Bids are due no later than 4:00 PM December 11, 2015.

For information you may contact Mr. Patrick G. Hunt, Procurement Officer at (240) 895-4307 or pghunt@smcm.edu