

Professional Services Short List for Multiple A/E Projects of the Maryland Environmental Service

EBA Engineering, Inc. is seeking qualifications from MDOT certified MBE/WBEs for our pursuit of the Professional Services Short List for Multiple A/E Projects of the Maryland Environmental Service, Project ID No. 13-02-02.

Project Information

Project Name: Professional Services Short List for Multiple A/E Projects of the Maryland Environmental Service, Project ID No. 13-02-02

Owner: Maryland Environmental Service

Proposal Due Date: July 17, 2013 at 3pm

The Maryland Environmental Service ("MES") is soliciting expressions of interest from Architectural/Engineering ("A/E") firms to enter into agreements to provide engineering services on an as-needed basis. The variety of projects include solid waste management projects; water and wastewater treatment plant design and upgrade, collection and distribution system assessment and design, biosolids handling and disposal; dredging and dredged material placement including dredging operation facility planning, design and environmental services, Total Maximum Daily Load (TMDL) compliance including BMP (best management practice) development, wetlands and habitat development, infiltration/inflow study/correction; geotechnical services; environmental management systems, engineering, and environmental compliance; energy analysis, design, and support services; mechanical engineering; electrical engineering.

Proposal documents are available to view and download at <http://www.menv.com/procurement.shtml>

EBA is specifically seeking certified MDOT certified MBE/WBE firms to provide:

- Services specified in Category IV. Geotechnical Engineering Services, Items 1-10
- Services specified in Category V. Environmental Management Systems, Engineering, and Environmental Compliance Services, Items 1-8

Deadline to respond: July 1, 2013, 3pm

Send your qualifications via e-mail to Patricia Baylor at patricia.baylor@ebaengineering.com